COAST CLIPPINGS.

The Stockton Independent says the indications are that Stockton will, in the near future, be as famous for its flour as are Minneapolis and Rochester.

A town called Shoshone City will be laid out in a few days at the junction of the Wood River Branch with the Oregon Short Line. It has large resources behind it and will make a place of importance.

A contemporary in the southern part of the State is warned that there is a law against publishing advertisements of lotteries. We give this caution as the contemporary is Democratic, and therefore not liable to know anything about the law.

A young man named Frank Feibel attempted to mount a horse in Dublin, Alamogordo county, when the animal suddenly reared forward and threw him to the ground, and, his foot catching in the stirrup, he was dragged half a mile before he was caught. The two bones of the arm were frightfully mangled, being broken in no less than fifteen places.

Business is Business.

When the boys of Poker valley, Nevada sent one of the boys into Nebraska to find and hire a preacher, he had his instructions, and he asked: "Can you give sinners—right from the shoulder?"

The clergyman modestly replied that he thought he could.

"And can you play a fair game of seven-up?"

"Mercy, no!" He was terrified with the thought.

"Well, I don't know," replied the delegate. "The boys say as how if you played poker or seven-up or wanted to run a sweat board, the salary would only be $500 a year, but if you was one of the sort that squared off at salvation and had a claim in heaven all staked off and a shaft going down, they'd make it $800 and throw in the rent of a cabin. It's a matter of business with us, you see. We are bound to get hold of someone who can out-howl and out-preach that fellow at Davis Hill if we have to go up to $1,000 a year and furnish him a mule and a barrel of whisky."

A Negro Gourmand.

There is a negro in Brunswick, Ga., whose soul claim to distillation lies in his capacity to eat more at a time than any other man in the State. The other evening he agreed to eat twenty loaves of bread and a dollar's worth of bacon, provided the spectators would pay for the meal. In a few moments he had disposed of nine loaves and half the bacon, at which point the bystanders interfered, not wishing to be implicated in a homicide. The negro was much incensed at this interruption, declaring that he had thereby lost his only chance for a square meal which he had had in thirty years.

"It was my wife's misfortune to be laid up with rheumatism," writes Peter Balliet, Alexander, Kan., "that she could not sleep because of the pain, and could not move her arm. Three day's use of St. Jacobs Oil cured her, as I can prove to any one's satisfaction."

A NATURE GRAND BUT SWEET

Many expressions of sorrow at the loss of the late B. B. Redding are appearing, and his death is felt as a public grief. No one except Garfield has ever had so many sincere mourners on this coast. His long public career and peculiar duties, connecting him with all parts of California and Nevada, brought him into personal acquaintance with more people perhaps than any other man on the Pacific coast. He had the gift beyond all men we ever knew of inspiring confidence in his own honesty. It is related of him that once when a dispute as to the ownership of a large amount of land arose between the railroad and a private individual, in which several millions of dollars were involved, the man who was fighting the company said he would choose Mr. Redding to decide the equities of the case, and his decision was accepted by all the parties concerned. In his funeral discourse Dr. Stebbins said of him:

As a man of fine perceptions and true feelings he made a strong impression. His mind and feeling, ripened by experience, were mellow, bland and tolerant. His intellect was as honest as his heart. I could never discern—and I have seen him in a pinch—that his judgment was clouded by prejudice. Neither have I ever seen the rays of truth, of facts, of men, of things, refracted in him by low vapors of the mind. He was singularly fitted to diffuse happiness around him by his genial manners and ready sympathies. His smile was a benediction upon little children, and women loved him for his pleasant intelligence and the purity of his motives. He said little about religion except to refer to a theology that he had quite outgrown. He had great moral and religious common sense.

Mr. Redding was a fine example of a man engrossed in the usual struggle of business and affairs, yet keenly interested in some of the highest objects of thought and study. By constitutional bent and tendency to observe external things, facts and phenomena, the sphere of natural science was his field. He had the patience of pursuit, the carefulness of comparison, the imperturbability at confused and contradictory facts, that characterize the scientific temperament. Had he devoted himself to scientific studies as his vocation instead of his avocation, he would have been an investigator, and held an honorable rank among the foremost men of our time. His fondness, amounting to enthusiasm for studies that concerned the order and method of nature, was the natural expression of that love of intelligence for its own sake, which belongs to nobler minds that find their happiness in their own activity.

Business men very often find just at Fair time or other crowded seasons that they are in need of cards, bills or circulars and must have them in a few hours. We are always glad to receive orders, but prefer to not be hurried in getting out work, both for the sake of the customer and the office. We believe that a few dollars spent in circulars or cards would pay well, and we advise everyone to think the matter over and give the order now before the rush comes.

There are grain men in New York who estimate the wheat crop of 1893 at 800,000,000 bushels. Only half of this crop will be needed for home consumption, and the question is where will a market be found for the surplus? The grave European complication may speedily furnish an answer.

When a man gets so lary that starvation itself won't drive him to work, you will usually find him running for office on a labor reform ticket.

The Rev. Dr. W. Musgrave, D. D., LL. D., died in Philadelphia yesterday. He was the principal factor in the union of the new and old school branches of the Presbyterian church.

The Texas Republican State Convention endorsed the administration of President Arthur without reserve.

A NEW DOCTRINE

The Appeal is of the opinion that the newspapers throughout the State are too busily engaged in counting in all the counties and all the delegates for their pet candidates. This is poor policy and results in no good, as a newspaper cannot vote a delegation on paper to suit its fancy. It may be as well to remark in this connection that the newspapers had better leave the work of making a State ticket to the Convention composed of delegates chosen for that purpose. The time to support candidates is after nomination, and the paper which expresses its likes and dislikes before the Convention meets may be compelled to mouth a little crow during the campaign. This is rather a new departure for Republicans. It has been thought well by Republicans generally to agitate more or less before the primaries, and if possible to impress the people with the importance of selecting delegates in harmony with their sentiments, both as to men and principles, or either. This we take to be the foundation stone of a free Republic—free speech and a chance to get in men in accord with the prevailing sentiments of the people. The position the Appeal would assign to the newspapers would be a very unworthy one. Instead of leading the public thought of the day they would be simple tools to the machine. Instead of being in advance of their readers they would only speak after there was no chance to change the result. Such a position would deprive newspapers of their highest sphere of usefulness and honor.

THE NEXT STEP FORWARD.

A man named Williams, of the U. S. Army, has invented a telegraphic system which is connected with every moving train. It consists of a telegraph wire running along the track, but insulated from it and interrupted at intervals of 40 feet. The ends at each break are connected to copper rollers, which normally are in contact, so that the electric circuit is completed through them. One car of the train is fitted up as a telegraph office, and the long metal strips or rails projecting from below the car rub against the metal rollers as the car passes. In doing so they depress the rollers, thus causing them to break contact with one another. The strips connect with instruments in the car, and the electric current passes from one roller through the instruments to the other roller, and thence pursues its way along the rest of the wire. The circuit through the apparatus thus established is never absolutely interrupted; for as the car moves from one pair of rollers to the next the strips make contact with the latter just before contact with the former is broken. The instruments, in fact, are constantly moving along the telegraph line as the train itself moves; hence a message can be recorded on them or dispatched. O. F. McGlashan of the Santa Barbara Free Press has a system consisting of a little truck, which runs along on a wire above the moving train and is connected with instruments in the car. It is not developed yet which principle is the correct one, but no doubt one or a similar one will soon be in daily use.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

A timely rain in Kansas assures a good crop.

A renewal of outrages against the Jews is reported from the interior of Poland. The assailants are encouraged in their attacks by a party of officials.

The jury, in the case of Mary Glynn, at Bangor, Me., on trial for the murder of her daughter, an illegitimate child, have brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree.

Press Dispatches to EVENING GAZETTE.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

The President's Tour.

NEWPORT, R. I., August 25. The United States steamer Tallapoosa, with Secretary Chandler, left yesterday afternoon for New London, and will return before Saturday, when he will take possession of Coasters' Harbor Island. Arrangements will be perfected by the citizens to have President Arthur visit the island on Saturday and partake of their hospitality. Cornelius Vanderbilt's dinner in honor of the President was an elaborate affair. Covers were laid for 24 guests, among whom were ex-Governor and Mrs. Morgan, Secretaries Chandler, Brewster and Frelinghuysen, W. W. Astor and wife and Mrs. John Jacob Astor. Thousands of dollars were paid to florists to decorate the dining-room, front hall and vestibule. To-morrow President Arthur will attend several receptions, and call at the Casino and Commodore Baldwin's ball, and be the guest at a formal dinner given by ex-Governor Morgan.

Kansas Greenbackers

TOPEKA, August 25. The Greenback State Convention met yesterday. A series of resolutions reaffirming the National platform at Chicago in 1880 was adopted, adding the platform in the same, or a similar, shape, as adopted by the National Executive Committee at St. Louis last Spring. Ex-Governor Charles E. Robinson, first Governor of Kansas, was nominated for Governor. The remainder of the ticket is as follows: Lieutenant-Governor, J. G. Bayne; Secretary of State, A. P. Elder; Auditor, W. F. Garrison; Treasurer, J. H. Ludlow; Attorney-General, J. D. McBryan; Superintendent of Public Instructions, J. S. Whitman; Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, L. C. Uhl. The following were nominated for Congressmen-at-large: H. L. Phillips, John Davis, Allen Williams (colored), and J. N. Wood.

Copper Treasure Found.

ERIE, Pa., August 25. Captain D. Chapin, a mine-locator of New Jersey, struck a long-sought treasure this morning by the aid of a magnetic rod. For some months he has been cruising outside of Erie harbor in hope of locating the wreck of the schooner Vermillion, which, with 350 tons of copper, sunk in a storm nearly 50 years ago. This morning the magnetic indicator was violently disturbed. Soundings were made and the wreck discovered in 50 feet of water. An ingot weighing fifty pounds was brought to the surface. A huge diving-bell will be placed over the spot and men engaged to get up the long-concealed treasure, worth over $150,000.

An Atlantic Short-Line Route.

NEW YORK, August 25. The Post says: A company has been organized under the name of the Great American and European Short Line R. R. Company, with Norris Green as President, with a view of shortening the trip between this country and Europe. The plan is to convey passengers by rail to a point on the eastern coast of Newfoundland, where steamers will be taken to a point on the western coast of Ireland, distant only 1640 miles. It is thought four days will be saved by this route.

An Ambitious Warrior.

CHICAGO, August 25. McGillivuddy, Sioux Indian Agent at Pine Ridge, is here consulting General Crook. He says decisive action is necessary, as Red Cloud is determined to become chief and has fully organized a confederation for that purpose. He would resign rather than risk imminent assassination. His resignation would be an injury to the service.

A Heavy Dew in Texas.

DALLAS, Texas, August 25. For two days and nights there has been a heavy rain in West Texas and great damage done. Railroads washed out and trains on all railroads are late. Passenger trains on the Texas & Pacific were abandoned to-day because of washouts at Sparta and near Abilene and a great landslide in a long deep cut at the Red Bluff crossing of the Brazos river.

Prohibitionists Defeated.

MISSOURI VALLEY, August 25. Despite the Governor's proclamation saloons openly carry on business. The Prohibitionists know best whether they can prosecute successfully, since the Legislature failed to enact a penalty. A test case yesterday resulted in a complete victory for the saloon interests. The case was tried before Judge Donaldson.

Five Men Burned to Death.

BUFFALO, August 25. The loss by last night's fire is $300,000, covered by a general policy carried by the Erie Railway. The loss of life in the burning of the New York, Erie and Western Railroad Company's elevator is now definitely ascertained to be five: John O. Bonner, engineer; John Kemp, machinist; Charles Ambrosch, fireman; James H. Lee, Jr., weighmaster, and Timothy Driscoll, sweeper. Two bodies were recovered this morning, but so frightfully charred as to be unrecognizable. Nothing positive is yet known as to the cause of the explosion, although it is supposed to be due to an explosion of gas. The entire loss is estimated at $410,000.

A Bloody Affair in Arkansas.

ALMA, Ark., August 25. At Mountsboro last night Tom Sisco, David Pope and Frank Lane got into a quarrel when playing cards. Lane drew a knife and cut Pope in the abdomen, disembowling him, and then fatally stabbed Sisco in the breast. Pope lived one hour. Sisco was still alive this morning. At last accounts Lane was in the hands of a mob and is believed to be already lynched.

Promising to be Good Indians.

PEMBINA, Dakota, August 25. Collector McMurtrie has returned from a peace council with the Chiefs Little Shell, Little Ball and Red Thunder, and 75 Indians and half-breeds, in the Pembina mountains. He says the Indians pledge themselves not to interfere with the Customs officers hereafter, and admit their mistake in previous interference.

An Alleged Confidence Operation.

MILWAUKEE, August 25. General Edwards Bragg has been sued in the United States Court by J. A. Rice, proprietor of the Tremont House at Chicago, who alleges that Bragg conspired him out of $125 by getting him to cash two drafts on the Sergeant-at-Arms of the National House of Representatives, when that functionary owed him nothing.

Railroad Earnings.

PHILADELPHIA, August 25. The gross earnings of the eastern lines of the Pennsylvania road reach the unparalleled figure of $4,149,000 for the last month. For seven months their earnings were $28,800,000, and the net earnings $9,837,000. Net gain for the month, half a million.

A Wild Young Man Arrested.

CHICAGO, August 25. A confidential clerk of J. P. Peabody & Co., named O'Neill, having lived a wild life, drank, played heavily and fled, leaving his accounts $5,000 short, was arrested here yesterday while paying a visit to his mistress.

Crawford is All Right.

WASHINGTON, August 24. It is stated at the Treasury Department that there is not the slightest irregularity in the accounts of Superintendent Crawford, of the Carson Mint. The charge of misconduct was made against him by a discharged employee.

EGYPT'S TROUBLE.

Reported Capture of 2,000 Prisoners by the English-Arabi's Influence Said to be Waning.

ALEXANDRIA, August 24.

Intelligence received at the Palace states that the Boul-el-Dakur railway has been out a short distance from Elkitah, supposed to have been done by Bedouins, with the object of cutting off Arabi Pasha's retreat. Sultan Pasha has received information from Upper Egypt that there is a strong feeling against Arabi among the people, because of his selections.

Negotiations are proceeding between the commander of the Austrian gunboat Nautilus and Arabi, at Aboukir, with the view of effecting the release of the officers and 12 men, who, while the Nautilus was off Aboukir on Monday, were sent ashore where they were made prisoners.

A telegram has just been received here announcing the capture by the British of Tel-el-Kabir, with 2,000 prisoners.

PORT SAID, August 24.

Several more of Arabi Pasha's officers have arrived at Kantara from the Egyptian camp Salahiya. A letter from the commandant for Ghemileh has been received by the Sheiks in the Arab quarter of Port Said, charging the inhabitants to flee in consequence of a rumor of an advance on Port Said from Damietta.

Lord Charles Beresford arrived at Ismailia yesterday. The transport Galatia with troops from Bombay has arrived.

CONSTANTINOPLE, August 24.

Among Mussulmen the sympathy for Arabi Pasha is undiminished, but among those capable to distinguish between the political and sentimental aspects of the question there is a revolution of feeling, and some of those who formerly applauded Arabi now condemn him as a dangerous enemy of the empire.

PORT SAID, August 24.

Merio Bey, Serab Bey and other Egyptian officers who left for the front yesterday in company with Lord Charles Beresford, will be of immense service to the English staff when the inevitable collapse of Arabi's power begins, as they can discriminate between real traitors and those merely forced into rebellion.

ALEXANDRIA, August 24.

While Arabi Pasha's Generals know exactly our movements, we are ignorant of theirs. The absence of balloons is felt, as there is no place where they would be more useful.

ISMAILIA, August 24.

The enemy shelled the Household

Cavalry while the latter were on the march to-day. A few men and horses were wounded, but the affair was playing at long bowls. It is stated that Remsa has been evacuated, but the Arabs in retreating cut the fresh water canal more seriously than before. Small parties of Arabs continue to surrender, mostly old soldiers, whom Arabi Pasha compelled to join his forces.

LONDON, August 24.

It is generally expected that the British troops will move forward in strength on Sunday. It is stated that Ali Bey Jussuf, Governor of the city of Cairo, is willing to hand over the city to the English in the name of the Khedive.

ISMAILIA, August 24.

The enemy is reported in force ten miles off. Occasionally they attack our pickets, but retire directly we advance. Our line extends over a mile and a half beyond Ismailia, with advanced pickets and outposts of infantry and cavalry. The Duke of Connaught, with a brigade of Guards, is stationed on the left of Ismailia.

The water supply continues to diminish. Sunstroke has already claimed its victims, five men while marching to Nefiche being struck. Our cavalry is moving toward Nishmond via Nefiche. Three guns accompany them. The railway is to be completed. The infantry remains here until further orders.

Prinze Teck has arrived with General Wolsley.

VIENNA, August 24.

It is reported from Constantinople that the Sultan consulted Germany in regard to a military convention, and that Germany advised him to come to an understanding with England, as co-operation with that nation only means the defeating of Russia's plans.

ALEXANDRIA, August 24.

Troops at Fort Gellibhi, near Port Said, are reported to be wavering in allegiance to Arabi Pasha, and many are deserting.

The 26th company of Royal Engineers landed to-day and proceeded to Ramleh. The absence of field artillery is much commented upon.

CONSTANTINOPLE, August 25.

Said Pasha and Assam Pasha, Turkish delegates to the conference, have advanced fresh demands relative to the military convention with England, to the effect that Turks should land at Alexandria, and that the proclamation relative to Arabi Pasha, instead of declaring him a rebel, should summon him to submit to the Khedive.

ALEXANDRIA, August 25.

The enemy are pitching a number of tents in front of their position. It is believed to be a ruse to mask a withdrawal of troops. It is now known that the enemy are entrenching at Helopolis, a few miles from Cairo.

The Jewelry Trade Disturbed.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Aug. 25.

Some excitement has been caused in the jewelry trade by customs officers visiting several establishments and seizing large quantities of American jewelry. It is claimed that only a small portion of imported jewelry pays duty. The goods are smuggled into the upper provinces, it is said, and then sent to this city with a regular invoice.

WESTERN TELEGRAMS.

Serious Accident.

EMIGRANT GAP, August 25.

Yesterday Frank Gilderlief had his right leg cut nearly off and his left hand badly lacerated at George Grisondorfer's saw-mill. The mill was temporarily stopped for repairs, and Gilderlief was in close proximity to the saw, when steam was turned on with the above result. It is almost certain that his leg will have to be amputated.

The yellow fever is rapidly spreading. Judge Harris and wife and two customs officials were attacked yesterday morning. The doctors at Matamoros say many patients are frightened to death.

Henry J. Hall, Paying Teller of the Rhode Island Hospital Trust Company, confesses that he is a defaulter in $21,000. The stealing began in 1875. The defalcation was discovered while he was absent on a vacation.

The latest Washington swindle: There has been a regular and systematic shortage in the amount of ice delivered to the Treasury Department, extending over two years. The amount of the shortage is estimated at 10,000 pounds per month.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. J. J. Laws has gone to Sacramento and San Francisco on a visit.

J. Fleetwood Brown of Rand, McNally, the great Chicago map printers, is in Reno.

Professor Ring will take charge of the Winnemucca public school on the fourth of September.

Dr. J. L. York will lecture at the theater to-morrow evening. He is a free-thinker of considerable caliber.

Rev. Dr. Palmer returned from a camping tour in the adjacent hills last night, accompanied by other friends.

Miss Frankie Dow of Carson will take charge of a school at Colville, on the line of the Carson & Colorado railroad.

A. B. Small of Pittsburg, Pa., arrived here last night to attend to mining interests in Plumas county. He is stopping at the Golden Eagle Hotel.

Tom Clarke and Ben Small will, in a few days, leave Reno on a grand hunting tour about 100 miles north of here. They have an arsenal of shot-guns and will no doubt make a fearful clatter among small game.

J. H. Moon came in from Jacksonville this morning, where he is engaged in putting up a flouring mill for H. H. Dakin & Co. Mr. Moon expects to complete the work within 40 days, when he will return to Reno to reside.

Charles H. Squire has started a paper at Downsville called The Expositor, published semi-weekly. It is a bright little paper, and Charles's friends here wish it success. He used to be a compositor in the Gazette office.

Dr. Almon Brooks of Chicago, and Augustus Knight of St. Louis, both heavy capitalists interested in Tioga mines, went east this morning. Dr. Brooks is one of the leading physicians of Chicago. They go to Denver, to the Exposition.

J. J. Holmes, chief of construction on the C. & O. R. R., is at the Lake House with his daughters, Miss Maggie Holmes and Mrs. Fred Sikes. Mr. Holmes was lately injured by the premature explosion of a blast. Mr. Yerington visited him yesterday.

The Gazette reporter was in error yesterday when he stated that Will Gillespie of the Depot Hotel was going to Chico to take charge of a hotel there. He will occupy the position of clerk, but the "boss" will soon find out what sort of a fellow he is, and saddle the whole management upon him.

A Walker Lake Resort.

Parties are talking of building a hotel and bathing establishment at Walker lake, with yachts and other conveniences for fishing, if permission to invade the Indian reservation can be obtained. It would be a fine place for sport and recreation, Summer or Winter, as there is plenty of small game in the vicinity, thousands of ducks and geese on the lake in their season, and trout without end. There is a nice place about four miles below Hawthorne, close to the Carson & Colorado road, where a fine view of the lake can be had for its entire length, about 33 miles.

A Long-Lived Race.

The rule is that the good die young, but it has exceptions. The longest liver, according to the insurance prognosticators in Washoe county, is Hon. T. N. Carey of Wadsworth. His father and mother are both alive. The former being 93 years old. Last Summer he hoed an acre of corn in a day back among the rocks of Connecticut. His grandfather died aged 100 years 1 month and 22 days. His great-grandfather was 114 and his wife 113. Tom will likely attend all of our funerals before his own turn comes.

Old Lige Speaks.

While Old Lige was expounding politics last night to a circle of wide-mouthed listeners at the Arcade, he remarked: "This year country is too free. That's too much of the franchise business. The freedom of the ballot is all poppycock and hogwash. One-half the people can't vote as they want to, and the other half don't know what they want. That's crystallized gospel in that, and you just salt it down."

Huffer's Ranch.

Ben. Small visited Huffer's ranch yesterday, and was so much impressed with what he saw that he has a strong mind to quit the hotel business and turn rancher. Then, he says, he could get elected Supervisor or something, and lead a quiet life, besides making lots of money. He brought in a branch from a gooseberry bush which is remarkable for the number of berries it bears, and everything else at the ranch is equally prolific.

Todhunter's Barn.

Wm. B. Todhunter, whose home is in Grant county, Oregon, but who lives as much in Reno as anywhere else, and whose herds are numbered by tens of thousands, is building a barn. The walls are of stone, but some idea can be formed of its size from the fact that it takes 80,000 shingles to cover the roof and 32,000 feet of lumber for cross beams, rafters, etc.

Bob Hoy has received a barrel of the celebrated old Monongahela whiskey from Cleveland, Ohio. It is on tap at the Capital saloon. Try it.

There is a right good chance for an inference when one sees the Coroner and an undertaker in confidential confab. Then men think there are deadly schemes on foot.

F. J. Culver will lecture at the Baptist Church Friday and Saturday evenings, and at the M. E. Church Sunday evening, on temperance. All are cordially invited to attend.

The Republican County Central Committee will meet to-morrow to canvass and certify to the returns of the late primary election, and to make arrangements for the County Convention.

There is considerable machinery at the freight depot, awaiting shipment to various points in Nevada. It seems that there are more quartz-mills in course of construction now than ever before.

No housewife is good-natured unless the grocery bill is small and the goods first-class. Reno husbands are in the habit of pleasing their wives by buying their choice family groceries of J. K. Everett.

"Mons." Prescott, the funambulist, last evening successfully crossed from the Palace Hotel to the theater, on a wire, but as he didn't collect money enough to take him back, the show broke up with faint cheers.

Anyone knowing the present whereabouts of James A. Wilkinson or Leonard J. Whitney, formerly Lieutenant in the Nevada Cavalry, will confer a favor by informing the Adjutant General of the State of Nevada.

H. L. Knox is making of the Lake House one of the best family hotels in the State. His rooms are all light, well ventilated and comfortably furnished. The table is excellent; every luxury the market affords Knox gets, and his cooks prepare it as well as could be done in any New England kitchen.

Chase & Thyes are continually making improvements in their stock and saloon furniture and fittings, determined to excel all competitors and take the lead of the business in Reno. There is a delicious flavor about their mixtures seldom found elsewhere, and everything is served up with the utmost nicety. Customers are quickly accommodated with a fancy short drink, an ice-cold long drink, or a hard drink straight from the barrel.

Both Sides.

Some people will only listen to those who agree with them, others want to hear both sides. Dr. York will give the other side of the religious discussion in Saturday and Sunday evening lectures. The gentleman is an excellent speaker, and presents his points with the convincing force of a true orator. Go and hear him. It won't hurt you.

Nothing Too Good for Him.

A stalwart bull-puncher went into the Arcade yesterday and called for a drink, remarking: "Nothin' ain't too good for me. Set out your best bottle." Johnny Wolmering, of course, gave him the best stuff in the factory, yet the customer went off with a big scowl and an exalted nose. He soon returned and called for another drink, requesting the bar-keeper to do the fair thing and not slight a stranger because he looked rough, at the same time complaining that the last drink he got "had no life in it"—he wanted something "that would cook a fellow's kidneys." John handed out a bottle of "Bodie nightmare" which somebody had left him as a sample of the villainous stuff they sell down south, costing about nine shillings a barrel. The bull-puncher took a hearty sniff, and when he had recovered from a spasm of coughing, thankfully remarked: "Why didn't you give me that before! Nothin's too good for me."

Beats St. Jacobs Oil.

A young doctor in a village 85 miles from Reno was called in not long ago to see a pet dog that was sneezing and wheezing. He decided that it was a case of distemper, and prescribed some pills. Before the prescription was all used up the canine died. Not many days after, the wife of the man who had owned the dog was taken sick and the same young doctor was called. He looked at the tongue, felt the pulse and said that some pills were all that was necessary. After a moment's reflection he asked where those pills were he prescribed for the dog. He was told that some were in the house. "Well," he said, "take one of them three times a day." The young gentlemen soon found it necessary to look elsewhere for a place to make a living.
